Nationwide Chronic Illness Rider and Critical Illness Rider

Effective January 11, 2021

At Nationwide®, we view life insurance as more than just a death benefit. That's why we are adding two benefit features via riders to help clients face the unexpected: chronic illness and critical illness benefits. These riders will be automatically included on most single-life policies (with some restrictions based on age and underwriting class). There is no cost associated with these features unless they are exercised. The chronic illness and critical illness features join our terminal illness feature and make up our Living Access Benefit suite.

Effective January 11, 2021, applicable policies will include these features through the inclusion of the Accelerated Death Benefit for Chronic Illness Rider and the Accelerated Death Benefit for Critical Illness Rider.

This material is not a recommendation to buy, sell, hold or roll over any asset, adopt an investment strategy, retain a specific investment manager or use a particular account type. It does not take into account the specific investment objectives, tax and financial condition, or particular needs of any specific person. Investors should discuss their specific situation with their financial professional.

Keep in mind that, as an acceleration of the death benefit, exercising the Chronic Illness Rider or the Critical Illness Rider payout will reduce both the death benefit and cash surrender value by an amount greater than one dollar for every dollar paid. Make sure life insurance needs will still be met, even if the rider pays out in full. Though riders that customize a policy to fit individual needs usually carry an additional charge, neither the Chronic Illness Rider, the Critical Illness Rider nor the Terminal Illness Rider has an initial cost or upfront monthly charge when any is included in the policy; however, a cost is incurred if and when the rider is exercised. A life insurance purchase should be based on the life policy and not solely on riders or features.

The chronic illness, critical illness or terminal illness benefit paid will be reduced to pay due and unpaid premium or charges. Additionally, a pro rata portion of the payment will be applied as a policy loan payment if there is any outstanding indebtedness.

Neither Nationwide nor its associates provide tax or legal advice. Benefits may be taxable under certain circumstances. Clients should consult with their tax and legal advisors about their specific situation.

When choosing a product, make sure that life insurance needs are met. Because personal situations may change (e.g., marriage, birth of a child or job promotion), so can life insurance needs. Care should be taken to ensure these strategies and products are suitable. Associated costs as well as personal and financial objectives, time horizons and risk tolerance, should all be weighed before purchasing a product. Life insurance has fees and charges associated with it that include costs of insurance, which vary based on characteristics of the insured, such as sex, health, age and tobacco use; and additional charges for riders that customize a policy to fit individual needs. All guarantees and benefits of the insurance policy are backed by the issuing insurance company. Policy guarantees and benefits are not backed by the broker/dealer and/or insurance agency selling the policy, nor by any of their affiliates, and none of them make any representations or guarantees regarding the claims-paying ability of the issuing insurance company.
